

Enough

Vers 1

are the two of us enough to fill the void the emptiness is though i hear your trembling voice

Tried to look above
be grateful for our own
I don't want another brother
I try to keep it close
hope nobody knows
I guess we do agree
at least to some degree

Ref

ooh tell me why
can't be joyful together
still no need to cry
it's just another adventure

Theres no guarantee
Although I can believe
Some day we'll heal
Are the two of us enough
To fill the void?

Vers2

You words no longer change appearance Because of you temper Please know your my dearest I'll be your defender

Tried to look above
be grateful for our own
I don't want another brother
I try to keep it close
hope nobody knows
I guess we do agree
at least to some degree

Ref

ooh tell me why
can't be joyful together
still no need to cry
it's just another adventure

Theres no guarantee
Although I can believe
Some day we'll heal
Are the two of us enough
To fill the void?

Stick

Its hollow Feels so narrow I'm left with my sorrow
As long as I'm alive
I will strive
To fill the void

Ref

Theres no guarantee
Although I can believe
Some day we'll heal
Are the two of us enough
To fill the void?
